

PRESS RELEASE

TRAINING VALLEY throw its First Administrative Professional Symposium 2019

Empowering professional growth among administrative professionals through fun training sessions

KUALA LUMPUR, 29 April 2019 – Training Valley (M) Sdn Bhd, a corporate training provider has recently conducted its first Administrative Professional Symposium 2019, themed “Fans of The Boss” at Pacific Regency Hotel Suites KL on 25 April 2019.

The full-packed and fun-filled one day training symposium was joined by over 50 participants of HR and Administrative professionals, with four (4) tailored modules by panel of speakers with vast experience and knowledge in their respective industries.

Participants had enjoyed the symposium cited that the approach used by the organizer are interesting and memorable. There were four (4) lucky draws as interlude in between sessions, and a special appearance by Khai Bahar to mingle around with the participants after he performed four of his hit songs.

TRAINING VALLEY is an advocate of professional empowerment. Adam Shawal, the co-founder and director of TRAINING VALLEY said, “I believe that every employee deserves to be groomed, up skilled and re-trained, both for personal and professional development and we throw this symposium to gather all like-minded, driven, passionate people within the same professions and industry to grow professionally together.”

Pictures of the event day as follows:

Group photo of participants, speakers and organizer of Fans of The Boss symposium

Special performance by Khai Bahar

Group photo of TRAINING VALLEY team with Khai Bahar

Participants attentively listening to an interesting sharing by one of the speakers

---Ends---

About Training Valley (M) Sdn Bhd

TRAINING VALLEY was founded by team of champions with extensive experience in the training industry, aiming to provide quality training to all employees across the country – regardless of size of the company, (HRDF) contributors and non-contributors, private or government organizations. The founders wholeheartedly believe that every employee deserves to be groomed, up skilled and re-trained, both for personal and professional development to contribute significantly to the achievement of their organization’s goals.

Editorial Contact

Kamarul Ariffin Kamarulzaman

kamarul@trainingvalley.com.my

03-76221373 / 011-56356393

www.trainingvalley.com.my